PROPERTIES

Ginger Exfoliator is a natural exfoliant made from the ginger plant's rhizome, known for its rich active compounds. The phenolic compounds, gingerols, and shogaols, present in the rhizome provide antioxidant and vasodilating properties.

Ginger is a flowering plant widely used as a spice and in folk medicine, with a history dating back to its domestication in Island Southeast Asia. Transported across the Indo-Pacific by the Austronesian peoples, it was one of the first spices to reach Europe, used by ancient Greeks and Romans.
